„With effect from 26 October 2020, MH Hydraulics can call itself a Certified Excellence Partner of Bosch Rexroth.

Certification process

On 11 December 2019, the declaration of intent was signed for certification. Over the past year, MH Hydraulics has successfully completed all the steps towards the certified partnership. The certification process comprises various phases from pre-selection to evaluation and implementation.

Contract signature as a Service Partner

All phases have been successfully completed by MH Hydraulics. On 26 October it was confirmed with a certificate. As of today, MH Hydraulics C.E. is Service Partner of Rexroth, specialized in the field of hydraulic piston pumps and motors. With this unique partnership, Rexroth has national coverage in the Netherlands with the same guaranteed and trusted quality next to its own repair workshops.

Expert repairs

Together with the other Rexroth partners, MH Hydraulics offers guaranteed quality and has access to the factory adjustment data. It is regularly audited by Rexroth. With their large stock of original parts, combined with knowledge and skills, they can repair quickly and professionally for a good price. Both parties have great confidence in the future. Through this cooperation, Bosch Rexroth responds to the need for a customer friendly and high quality solution for the Dutch customers of pump and motor repairs.

One team with one common goal

With this intensive cooperation, Rexroth takes the next step towards a strong partner landscape with guaranteed Rexroth quality. In this way, both parties are
